

House of Representatives U. S.

Washington, D. C., May 26th, 1888.

My dear Mr. Fox:-

I observe through the papers that you are making changes by the wholesale in the Mint, and write you to urge the retention of my friends, Mrs. Beidelman, and Frank Hendricks, appointed through your kindness from my District. I have every reason to believe that they are both very honest and efficient workers, and that the service cannot be improved by putting any one else in their places. It occurred to me that I could do no more than request their retention by you after seeing what was going on, and the changes you were making. I was sorry you did not put in an appearance on the day of the marriage of my daughter, for I confidently hoped to see you in Washington on that occasion.

Hoping you are well, I am, with regards,

Sincerely yours,

W. W. Towden.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 152

House of Representatives U.S.
Washington, D.C.,
May 26, 1888

My dear Mr. Fox: -

I observe through the papers that you are making changes by the wholesale in the Mint, and write you to urge the retention of my friends, Mrs. Beidelman, and Frank Hendricks, appointed through your kindness from my District. I have every reason to believe that they are both very honest and efficient workers, and that the service cannot be improved by putting any one else in their places. It occurred to me that I could do no more than request their retention by you after seeing what was going on, and the changes you were making. I was sorry you did not put in an appearance on the day of the marriage of my daughter, for I confidently hoped to see you in Washington on that occasion.

Hoping you are well, I am, with regards,
Sincerely yours,
W.W. Towden